

Marcus Van Reese, the Mystery Man, gave a free magical performance for the pleasure of the Odd Fellows after their meeting Monday night. The boys appreciated his work greatly, as evidenced by the frequent and hearty applause. Marcus is very adept in his work and never fails to win the approval of his audiences. He is pronounced more clever in his magic and crystal gazing than Newman, who is well known throughout North Dakota.