

Kent the little son of Dr. and Mrs. M. D. Westley fell from a wagon last week, as a result of which one of the bones in the right fore arm was broken. The arm was set and he will soon be able to use it again.—Sentinel Courier.