

Schmidt-Jernson

Wm. Schmit and Miss Cora Jernson, the latter of Spring Valley, Wisconsin, who is quite well and favorably known here, were united in marriage at her home last week. The following account of the wedding was taken from the Spring Valley Sun:

Miss Cora Jernson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christ Jernson of Spring Valley, and Wm. Schmit of Sutton, N. D., were married yesterday, Dec. 30, at the home of the bride, by Rev. L. Fyelling.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Emma Jernson, and John Anderson of Gilman was best man. Allan Spooner of Eau Claire played the wedding march.

The bride was dressed in silk crepe du chene, and carried bride roses; the bridesmaid was dressed in yellow taffeta silk with a bouquet of pink roses.

About thirty guests were present, mostly near relatives. The only ones from away were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Spooner of Eau Claire.

The happy couple left last evening for a trip through eastern Wisconsin; they will soon go to homekeeping at Sutton.

The Sun joins their other friends in best wishes for a long and happy married life."

Mr. and Mrs. Jernson's friends in and around Sutton will also have a hearty wish for their happy future.
