

Mr. and Mrs. Christ Klink are the parents of probably the smallest baby ever born in the county. The baby was born on March 9th, it is a girl and weighs only one pound. It is so small that they have to keep it wrapped in cotton and hot water bottles around it to have enough heat to sustain life. Thus far the infant seems to be getting along all right and reports are that its chances to live are very good.

Dazey Commercial