

A telegraph message addressed to Miss Thelma Henvit was received here Tuesday evening, conveying the sad intelligence that her mother was dead. Miss Henvit was in Fargo for a short visit, and it was evidently presumed she was coming to Sutton before returning home.