

Ludvig Larson of Revere, who recently went to a training camp, died Thursday of influenza. He was a member of Larson & Elliott mercantile firm of Revere before joining the army.