

Mrs. Anna Paulson

Born in Norway August 22, 1842, died February 9, 1920, age 77 years, 5 months and 17 days. She was married in the old country to Paul Amundson, nine sons being born to them seven of them surviving her, as follows; Emil of Westby, Wisconsin, Peter, Antone and Matt of Rockland Wisconsin, Chris of New England, and Paul and Andrew of Sutton.

Her husband having died, she with her youngest son, Andrew, come to America in 1902, the others having preceeded her to this country. Two years were spent in Wisconsin, and she then came to this state, her son Ole now deceased, being employed as foreman on A. J. Anderson's farm. Of recent years she lived in Sutton, the boys here looking after her welfare, permitting her declining years to be spent in comfort and ease, the reward of a life of toil, and responsibility spent in rearing a large family.

The funeral was held at the Lutheran church February 11
