

Simen Simenson Dead

Last Friday night at eleven o'clock occurred the death of Simen Simenson at the home of his son, Ingebret, south of here. He was 93 years of age, and up to two years ago had enjoyed excellent health. He was an old timer here, having come to this country with his family in the early day. The children who survive him are three sons, Ingebret, John and Otto, and two daughters, Mrs. Martha Wilson, and another whose name we did not learn.

Funeral services were held at Mabel church Sunday, conducted by Rev. Thoreson.

---