

John Sloan of Hamar, whose home was formerly at Juanita, and who was known to many young folks around Sutton, was killed Saturday. He was attempting to start a gasoline engine and his clothing was caught in the fly-wheel which dashed him to death before the engine could be stopped.