

A baby boy was born to Mrs. Frank Starr at Fargo Tuesday afternoon, but very unfortunately it lived but a few minutes. The body was brought to Sutton Wednesday by Robert Starr, and burial was made by the side of its father at the cemetery east of town. Rev. Hewson came up from Wimbledon and conducted the service.