

Loren Syverson, an old-time resident and pioneer of the community southwest of Sutton, but who, during the past few years had lived at Burtrum Minnesota, died there this week of that dread malady, cancer of the stomach. The body was brought back here and the funeral held Thursday at the Free Methodist church southwest of Sutton.