

John Youngbeck was called to Fon du Lac, Wis., last Thursday, by a telegram stating that his mother, Mrs. Mary Youngbeck, was dead. Deceased was 75 years old and three weeks previous to her death was in good health. She was very popular in her home town and the funeral was attended by a large concourse of people. She is survived by five daughters of Fon du Lac, and John, her only living son, of Sutton.