

Draxler-Albrecht

Tuesday, June 22, at St. Mary's Catholic church, Auburn-dale Wisconsin, were spoken the vows uniting in marriage Miss Kathryn Draxler and Frank Albrecht. The ceremony which was performed at nine o'clock a. m. was the regular ceremony of the church. The groom was attended by his brother and cousin, Geo. Albrecht and Edward Hilgard, and the bride by Theresa Hilgard and Tillie Schulhauser, who were close friends of hers. The flower girls and ring bearer were her nieces. The bride wore a wedding gown of white satin and allover georgette, and she carried a shower bouquet, and the brides maids were dressed in in blue organdie and yellow satin and allover georgette. The ring bearer was dressed in pink and the flower girls in white, carrying carnations.

At noon a wedding dinner was served at the bride's home and in the evening a big dance was given at the town hall.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Draxler of Auburndale, likewise the home of the groom, although he has worked around Sutton the past ten years with the exception of the service in this country and overseas. They arrived in Sutton last week and are preparing to occupy their home which he recently purchased.
