

George Walker and Miss Lucy McWethy left Sutton for Fargo Wednesday evening, and Thursday, at Moorhead they had the mystic words pronounced that joined them in holy wedlock. Both are very estimable young people, and have many friends wherever they go. They will reside at Dogden, which is the groom's home, and where he will be employed as an electrician. Many are the good wishes of their friends.