

W. A. Adams has decided to quit the feed mill business and is advertising his property for sale. He intends to leave soon for Kansas City to take a course of study in a tractor school.