

Saturday morning about seven o'clock, an aeroplane flew over Sutton, and a great many had a chance to get a good view of it. The driver was Ed McElligot of Enderlin, who had been giving exhibitions at new Rockford and was on his way to Fargo, traveling along the route of the Great Northern.