

• Mrs. H. E. Black received some serious injuries last Tuesday night while driving the car into the garage at her home. The lights were poor and she did not get the car stopped in time and it ran into the wall. She attempted to crank it in order to back up and her hand slipped and plunged into one of the headlights. The glass was broken and some bad gashes were cut in the wrist.