

The athletic club that was recently formed here is attracting considerable attention among the lovers of that sort of sport. Several of our light and heavyweights are able to put up quite a show on the mat or with the gloves. John Davidson and Clarence Carlson are considered champions among those who wrestle, and Selmer Bergstad and Arvie Boisjolie are watched with much interest in their boxing exhibitions. Wednesday night of this week Davidson and Carlson went to Grace City to give a wrestling match at McCullough's pool hall.
