

Anton Christopherson came home Friday night on the special train from Fargo, having been in the hospital six weeks, where he was operated on. He is now much improved in health and in a short time will regain his former vigor.