

The local I. O. O. F. lodge is waking up to its usual winter activities, and Monday night they gave the initiatory degree to five candidates, namely, Wm. Werner, Harold Davidson, Oscar Frydenberg, George Bjornerud and James Bailey. After the work was given the members and the candidates spent a social two hours partaking of a lunch and enjoying themselves playing whist. No meeting will be held next Monday night but the work will be resumed a week later.
