

The three year old child of Fred Dietrich's became suddenly ill last week, and Thursday was taken to Fargo where an operation was performed for appendicitis. His condition has since become very critical, although there is now some improvement. He was accompanied by his mother, Dr. Lewis and Mrs. John Urban.