

Fred Dietrich and family arrived last Thursday from Rozellville Wisconsin and will again become residents of this locality. It seems that after these gentle North Dakota zephyrs blow through one's whiskers for a few years, he simply can't reconcile himself to anything slower.