

J. H. Duncker, our local artist, has completed a large model of the American Legion emblem, to be displayed in their meeting room, on public occasions etc. The model is quite fancy and required considerable work to prepare it.