

The first of this week, while playing near a building T. S. Davidson was moving into town, Marvin Greenland had one of his feet badly crushed. He was not able as a result, to attend school this week.