

Louis Hafner was in Coopers-town Tuesday to have an examination made of his injured knee. It is at present quite stiff and tears are entertained that it may be permanent. He will have an X-ray examination made soon.