

Homer L. Hill has located at Marion, where he has purchased a drug store. He says he is pleased with the location, the store being in a brick building and lighted by electricity. Well, here's wishing Friend Hill all kinds of success. One thing is certain, Marion has at least one live wire business man, and the folks there should congratulate themselves that he has cast his lot among them.