

From H. L. Hill

F. S. Marrs,
Sutton, N. D.

Dear Sir:

Now that the Dove of Peace again hovers over the land and the censor has gone out of business it may interest you to know what sort of a home I have had since becoming one of Mr. Daniels' boys.

I am enclosing you a couple of items, clippings from the New York Evening Sun the only publicity ever given out regarding our boat to my knowledge.

Have just returned from a fifty-one day cruise. Have covered over forty thousand miles this year, I am sure you will agree with me when I say I am becoming somewhat of a traveler.

Missed your Reporter very much. Would have had you send it to me but newspapers are very ancient by the time they reach us, we are very thankful to have our letters delivered promptly, however I expect to have my name on your subscription list again in the very near future.

As soon as our task of transporting the boys home again is completed I shall wing my way to North Dakota as fast as the Government controlled railroads will bring me.

Kindly extend my greetings to the good people of Sutton.

With warmest regards, I remain
Yours respectfully
Homer L. Hill
