

Oscar F. Hoff has purchased the Crane-Johnson house now occupied by E. A. Daniel and his mother, and in a short time will move his family here. Mr. Daniel has about decided to give up his position with the G. N. and go boche hunting as there is no other place for them to live here.