

Hail hit several farms both north and south of town, the losses in some cases being total. The Howden farms north and west of Sutton received the worst blow from the hail, the crops having been wiped completely out.