

Last Friday while returning from Cooperstown, Mrs. Johnnie Jackson was the victim of an accident in which she narrowly escaped serious injury. Another car that was being driven in the opposite direction was on the wrong side of the road, and through the carelessness or inefficiency of the driver, was not turned out, thus resulting in a collision between it and Mrs. Jackson's car. Both received a general shaking up and Mrs Jackson's hand was severely injured, it being thought at the time that two of her fingers were broken. Fortunately they were not, but it was a stroke of luck for her that she was not badly hurt.
