

---

A letter to the Reporter from Martin Jacobson conveys the information that he landed at Camp Merritt New Jersey January 3, having sailed from Bordeaux France December 23. The trip home was a rough one as there were many storms. He expects to be in Sutton soon but may have to go to California to get his discharge. He says Camp Merritt is the finest camp he has ever been in.

---