

The little child of Ernest Johnson's, who was taken to Fargo recently to be operated on for appendicitis, was brought home Saturday. The operation was not performed as her condition would not permit it at the present time.