

Miss Winitred Kampen came home last week from Valley City, where she attended school during the winter. She will not return for the spring term, but will attend school there again next winter.