

Mrs. Adolph Kjelson was called to Fargo again Sunday on account of the condition of her son, Harold. Since then he has become steadily worse until at last reports there is no hope entertained for his recovery. Mr. Kjelson was advised of his condition by phone Thursday, and went to Fargo that evening to be at his bedside.