

Little Myra Kjelson is the proud owner of a handsome cabinet phonograph, sent to her as a gift this week by her brother, C. H. Kjelson of Napoleon. Considering that an instrument rarely sells for less than $100, it is certainly a gift to be proud of.