

Sam Kladis, who was here a few weeks last summer, returned from Minneapolis Monday and will spend the remainder of the winter with John Peters. Sam is very musical, being a fine singer and a skillful performer on the guitar and mandolin.