

Andrew Lund, who, with John Bond, is farming the Loren Syverson place, became sick with appendicitis Friday and Sunday evening was brought to town to be taken to Fargo on No. 2. That train being over twelve hours late he had to remain here until Sunday morning before completing the trip.