

Tuesday night a warrant was served on Hilding Miller by Sheriff Nelson of Cooperstown, charging him with having whiskey in his possession and for sale. He was taken to Valley City where a hearing was held Thursday and a fine of $200 and a four months jail sentence imposed. Miller, it is stated, was receiving the booze from "Jimmy" Jones of Juanita, who was arrested at the border a few days ago on a charge of booze running.