

Under date of October 7, Syver Peterson writes to have all mail forwarded from Sutton to Fairmead California. He says they like it fine out there. The soil is flat and very rich, being adapted to growing almost any kind of crop. Fairmead is sixty miles south of Sacramento.