

A. H. Retzlaff became so enthused over the flight of the aeroplane Saturday morning that he went to Fargo that afternoon to try for a ride in it. He was lucky enough to get a ten minute ride in it at $1.00 per minute, and is now so stuck up over the adventure that he won't hardly notice us common guys.