

Orion Rhodes, departed for Daytona Beach Florida Thursday to take a course of training in aviation. He will return about April 15 and if all plans materialize, will return with a new three passenger, 150 horse power aeroplane which will be jointly owned by several of our citizens. Some big doin's next summer, yes.