

Shorty Russell has about decided to start a movement to have North Dakota given back to the Indians. Perhaps the reason Mr. Russell is harboring such a grouch at the weather is because he has not yet received his quota of spring catalogs. You see there is nothing quite so potent as a spring catalog to aid in driving dull care away when the long winter grows arksome.