

The Lutheran aid society's shadow social Saturday was quite successful, the receipts being $65.50. Victor Simensen officiated as auctioneer and proved his ability in that line by securing good prices,