

Mrs. John Weiler and children departed Tuesday for Morris, Minnesota, their future home. Mr. Weiler followed later with the cars containing his stock and machinery. He has purchased a quarter section in Minnesota and expects to return to his former method of farming which is more to his taste. They are fine people and this community has sustained a great loss in their removal.