
A New Comer

Tom Walsh, one of our good farmers from the north, was in town one day this week and while at the Gazette office he let it be known that the stork had been in his neighborhood and left a fine 11½ pound girl baby. He had been so busy rejoicing over the arrival of the new one that he forgot to notify this paper last week. The girl made her appearance at the Walsh home on Sunday, Oct. 26.
