Death of Kensal Druggist

The death of O. E. Holmes, one of the well known citizens of Kensal, occurred Monday at his home in that town, from cancer. Mr. Holmes has been at the Valley City hospital some time for treatment, and his illness has been of an extended duration. He has been engaged in business for a number of years at Kensal. The remains were taken to Fertile, Minn., for interment. He was a member of the Jamestown lodge of Elks.
