

Obituary

On Saturday morning, November 8th, occurred the death of Albert McDaniel, one of North Dakota's pioneers, who died at the Mound Park Sanitarium, in St. Paul.

Deceased was born at Dickeysville, Wis., Sept. 20, 1852, and while a child moved with his parents to Boydtown, Wis., where he grew to manhood.

On August 20, 1887, he was married to Belle Smith of Seneca, Wis. To this union five children were born, three sons and two daughters.

He leaves to mourn his loss, a loving wife, three sons, Frank of Courtenay, Carl of Glenfield and James of Jaunita, and two daughters, Mrs. Ernest Cooper and Mrs. Velma Niles, both of McHenry.

Besides the above he leaves two brothers and two sisters, William of Dunkirk, Mont., John T. of McHenry, Mrs. Wm. Dunbar of Wawzeka, Wis., Mrs. Ed Lawrence of Viroqua, Wis.

We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved ones in their hour of affliction.

CARDS OF THANKS

We hereby desire to thank our friends who so kindly assisted us during the sickness and death of our beloved husband and father; also for the beautiful floral offerings.

Mrs. A. McDaniel, and children.
