

Wesley Meeker, a 6-year-old boy living at Beach, received injuries which may prove fatal, while riding on the rear of a moving wagon. There was a soil packer being trailed behind the wagon and when the youth slid off the wagon he was caught by the packer and ground into the roadway, receiving serious injuries about the head and body.