

DIED IN MINNEAPOLIS—

A. S. Adams, an uncle of W. B. and W. F. Moffett of this city, died there last Saturday, death resulting from an operation.

W. B. Moffett has been there for the past two weeks, being called by the serious illness of his father; and while there his uncle was taken seriously ill and an operation performed. W. F. Moffett, left Saturday evening where he attended the funeral, returning on Wednesday and reports his father getting along nicely.
