

At Blaine, Washington, on May 6, occurred the death of Mrs. J. D. Thompson. Mrs. Thompson had been in poor health for some time and after spending the winter in California was feeling much better and was thought to be out of danger. The immediate cause of death was heart failure. Mr. Thompson was the Soo agent at this place for two years and during her stay here Mrs. Thompson made a host of friends who will be sorry to hear of her sudden demise. There are left to mourn the loss the husband and two children, Gladys aged ten, and Bubbs aged four, beside the mother, Mrs. S. Dahlquist and Miss Mary of Forrest City, Ia., Enoch Dahlquist of Ada, Minn., M. T. Dahlquist of Minot and Mrs. Albin Homer of San Jose, Cal.

The remains were taken to Forrest City, Iowa, for burial, services being held from the family residence on Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Gladys and A. J. Thompson went to Casselton Sunday evening and from there accompanied their brother J. D. Thompson to Forrest City, Iowa.
